senators ready to vote on the bill, which will require presidential consent before the Senate can ratify the amendments. The bill will be referred to a committee of the Senate to provide the constitutionality.

Members of the presidential commission, which was created by the Public Order Law, have been designated to review the amendments to the constitution.

The delivery time, in the other hand, was assigned to the Public Order Law, which will be referred to the Senate to provide the constitutionality.

The amendment, however, will not be referred to the Senate until the amendments are approved by the Senate.

Senator Gregorio Sison, who is the chair of the Senate Committee on Constitutional Amendments, said that the amendments will be referred to the Senate after the amendments are approved by the Senate.

"We have to wait for the Senate to give the bill to the president and the president to sign it," Sison said.

REMOVE 'MIDNIGHT' APPOINTEE

Renato Corona sits as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court on the basis of a dubious appointment. The 1987 Constitution is very clear: "Two months immediately before the next presidential elections and up to the end of his term, a President or Acting President shall not make appointments, except temporary appointments to executive positions when continued vacancies therein will prejudice public service or endanger public safety."

Corona was appointed Chief Justice by then President Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo within the period stipulated in the Constitution.

Corona therefore sits as Chief Justice on the basis of a "midnight" appointment explicitly banned by the 1987 Constitution.

By accepting this "midnight" appointment, Corona knowingly and willfully violated the country's fundamental law and continues to illegally occupy the position.

In his recent commentary, "Louis XIV syndrome," opinion-maker Juan L. Mercado exposed Corona's delusion when he wrote:

"Corona sallies forth as a dragon slayer, but his armor has two gaps. One, he is a midnight appointee. And second, the majority of Filipinos don't see him as a justice in the mold of a Jose Abad Santos, Cecilia Muñoz-Palma or Roberto Concepcion. Before stepping down, Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo issued midnight appointments to a Malacatang gardener, a personal manservant and the Chief Justice, among other people."

Corona's track record as Associate Justice and Chief Justice has been marked not by "cold neutrality" and strict adherence to due process and respect for the Constitution, but by partiality and bias for his benefactor and patron, Mrs. Arroyo, whose nine-year misrule was characterized by plunder, electoral fraud, and human rights violations.

And with Corona's integrity now under a heavy cloud of doubt with allegations that he has amassed ill-gotten wealth, he should not be allowed to continue at the helm of the Court of Last Resort.

"Midnight" appointee Renato Corona should be removed by the Senate to restore the credibility of the highest tribunal and strengthen the capability of the entire Judiciary to uphold the Constitution and the rule of law.

FIGHT FOR WHAT'S GOOD! FIGHT AGAINST CORRUPTION!
REMOVE CORONA!

REMOVE ARROYO'S GATEKEEPER!

Impeached Chief Justice Renato Corona should not stay a minute longer at the Supreme Court.

Not only has Corona shown utter bias and lack of judicial independence as former President Gloria Arroyo's "gatekeeper" to ensure total control of the Supreme Court, he has also subverted the very justice system he has sworn to uphold.

A recent commentary by columnist Neal Cruz shows clearly how the Chief Justice "falsely made it appear that Arroyo 'substantially' complied with the conditions" of the temporary restraining order that would have allowed her to leave for purported medical treatment abroad and thus, escape prosecution for the plunder, electoral sabotage and graft and corruption charges she is facing.

Citing the dissenting opinions of Associate Justices Antonio Carpio and Maria Lourdes Sereno on the Nov. 29, 2011 resolution of the Court, Cruz wrote:

"That resolution, by a vote of 7-6, upheld the effectivity of the TRO issued in favor of Arroyo despite her non-compliance with the conditions—set by the Court itself in its Nov. 15, 2011 resolution—just so the TRO would become enforceable. The dissents reveal explosive facts: the TRO specially favored Arroyo and Corona's bias and partiality towards her."

Cruz concluded with these words: "The judiciary has long lost its independence, not to the present administration but to former President Arroyo when she packed it with people beholden to her. The impeachment process is not an assault on the independence of the judiciary but, precisely, the first step in releasing it from its bondage to Arroyo."

"The Court is a hostage(d) institution. It must be freed and reclaimed by the people. The first step in this rescue is to remove its gatekeeper, Corona, who was appointed just as the Arroyo administration was ending."

FIGHT FOR WHAT'S GOOD! SAVE THE SUPREME COURT!
REMOVE CORONA!

RECLAIM THE JUDICIARY FOR THE PEOPLE!

GREAT LEADERS FIGHT THE GOOD BATTLE FOR THE PEOPLE

President Benigno Aquino III displayed resolute political will in taking to task a Supreme Court packed with the loyal and subservient appointees of former President Gloria Arroyo, led by impeached "rednight" Chief Justice Renato Corona.

Here, P-Noy took a leaf from past US Presidents Abraham Lincoln and Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Lincoln openly clashed with the Chief Justice before overturning with his historic Emancipation Act of 1862 the pro-slavery decision of the US Supreme Court on a case that sparked in part the bloody US Civil War.

Roosevelt, for his part, sought to increase the number of justices in the US Supreme Court. He argued that the court should be reformed as it could not handle its caseload, thereby impeding instead of ensuring the dispensation of justice.

While former UP College of Law Dean Raul C. Pangalangan in pointing out the similarities among P-Noy, Lincoln and Roosevelt, and why President Aquino should continue his showdown with the Corona-led Supreme Court in the name of justice, freedom and what is right:

"We have, therefore, reached the point as a nation where we must take action to save the Constitution from the Court and the Court from itself. ... We want a Supreme Court which will do justice under the Constitution and not over it." These words were uttered not by President Aquino in 2011, but by US President Franklin Delano Roosevelt (FDR) in a fireside radio broadcast in 1937.

Clearly, P-Noy must draw inspiration from the former US president in moving against the dogged determination of the Arroyo appointees to cling to power, and in appointing in their place justices who have the moral ascendancy and honor to serve the public.

Pangalangan stressed that "this is the best time" to reform the judiciary with "Noy-noy riding the crest of popularity for his anti-corruption campaign," adding that "Binay took to rhetoric, called them 'hoodlums in robes' but didn't stay long enough to intimidate them."

The law professor wrote further: "Presidents have an equal duty to develop our constitutional traditions. Abraham Lincoln defied the US court's ruling in the infamous Dred Scott case that upheld slavery and how! He emancipated the slaves and fought a civil war. The uncivility between our political and judicial branches is no great shakes by that standard, but I sure hope it would yield as liberating a legacy."

"The real lesson here is that: 'We the People' own this Constitution. The courts do not hold a monopoly over the power to divine its meanings."

Texters, E-Painters win, force Game 7

BY MICHAEL HARRIS

Texters and e-painters won the first two games of the 2012 season, forcing Game 7. The first game was a close contest, with the home team winning by a narrow margin. The second game was a more decisive victory for the visitors, who dominated throughout. The series is now tied 1-1, and Game 7 will be a crucial match.

Taiwan's Ma wins second term as president

Taipei—Taiwan's outgoing president Ma Ying-jeou won a second term in office Sunday, defeating his challenger, former premier Lu Hsiang-shan, in a landslide victory.

Ma, 61, won 58 percent of the vote, while Lu, 60, won 41 percent. Ma's victory was a surprise, as he was not expected to win a second term.

7 resolutions for retirees in 2012

Retirees may be past the stage of working to make out money, but when it comes to money, there's still a lot to be done. Here are seven resolutions for retirees in 2012.

1. Get involved in your community. Retirees should not just sit at home. They should get involved in their community. This could be through volunteering, joining a club, or even starting a new business.
2. Stay active. Retirees should stay active. This could be through exercise, travel, or even taking up a new hobby.
3. Stay financially sound. Retirees should stay financially sound. This could be through budgeting, saving, or even investing.
4. Stay healthy. Retirees should stay healthy. This could be through exercise, eating well, or even taking up a new hobby.
5. Stay socially connected. Retirees should stay socially connected. This could be through family, friends, or even a community group.
6. Stay mentally sharp. Retirees should stay mentally sharp. This could be through reading, puzzles, or even taking up a new hobby.
7. Stay happy. Retirees should stay happy. This could be through spending time with loved ones, pursuing hobbies, or even traveling.

Loving work and the good life

It's not just about making money, it's about loving work and the good life. Here are some tips for how to achieve this.

1. Find a job you love. If you don't love your job, you won't be able to do it well. Find a job that interests you and that you can see yourself doing for the long term.
2. Set goals. Having goals can help you stay motivated and focused. Set both short-term and long-term goals, and make sure you're working towards them.
3. Take breaks. It's important to take breaks from work. This can help you stay energized and avoid burnout.
4. Stay healthy. Taking care of your physical health is important. Exercise regularly, eat well, and get enough sleep.
5. Stay socially connected. Having a strong support system is important. Spend time with family and friends, and don't be afraid to ask for help when you need it.
6. Stay financially sound. Managing your money is important. Budget, save, and invest wisely.
7. Stay happy. Happiness is the key to a good life. Spend time doing things you enjoy, and don't be afraid to pursue your dreams.

DILG cites Albay's 'Twas Paputok' drive

The Department of Interior and Local Government (DILG) has cited the successful implementation of the "Twas Paputok" program, part of which was the "Twas Paputok" campaign which significantly reduced intercommunity tensions during the New Year season.

It stated that the program represented only the initial steps in the process of peace and reconciliation.

The report cited that the program was a success in the province of Albay, where the "Twas Paputok" drive was held along with the "Twas Paputok" drive, which aimed to reduce intercommunity tensions during the New Year season.

"While this is not a new initiative, it is a significant step towards peace and reconciliation in the province of Albay," said the report.

Interior Dept. William Marasigan of the Philippine National Police said the "Twas Paputok" drive and "Twas Paputok" drive were the first steps in the process of peace and reconciliation in the province of Albay.

PCCAL, FCGCI donate medicines worth P1.2 M to Sendong victims

In continuing efforts to assist victims of the Sendong typhoon, the Philippine Chamber of Commerce and Industry (PCCI) and the Philippine Chamber of Commerce and Industry (PCCI) have donated medicines worth P1.2 million to the victims of the Sendong typhoon. The medicines were donated to the victims of the Sendong typhoon, which caused significant damage to the province of Albay.
